

DIEP LE SHAKER

At Diep Le Shaker, the sterile and often unimaginative interior associated with the oriental restaurant has been re-invented to create a modern dining experience that embraces the very best of contemporary design. White linen, red velvet seats and a James Bond-style cocktail bar evoke a mood of comfortable glamour and relaxed sophistication that challenges the notion that "going for a Chinese" cannot be a relaxed, stylish experience. Serving exotic Chinese and Thai cuisine, classics such as spring rolls, chicken satay and Thai fish cakes take their place alongside stunning fish dishes and fragrant Thai curries. Try stir fried lobster with fresh chilli and Thai herbs or sample their deep fried monkfish topped with a dry red curry and garnished with Thai herbs.

All meals are MSG free and in keeping with the stylish interior, all dishes are beautifully presented. Diep Le Shaker is expensive but it is worth it and one year since its creation, it has become a popular haunt for those who enjoy exceptional food in sumptuous surroundings in an relaxed but nevertheless vibrant atmosphere. Perfect for treats, dinner for two or celebrity gazing, Diep Le Shaker is on Pembroke Lane, Dublin 2.
